Case No. 13-8569

On May 30, 2013, at approximately 3:42 p.m., police officers and firefighters from the Portage Department of Public Safety responded to a personal injury accident at the intersection of Portage Road and Wetherbee Avenue.

During the accident investigation, it was determined that a 2004 Kia Sedona, operated by a 32-year-old Portage resident, was traveling south on Portage Road when the driver suffered an unknown medical emergency and drifted across the center line into oncoming traffic. The second vehicle, a 2012 Dodge Journey, driven by a 61-year-old Portage resident, was traveling north on Portage Road, and the two vehicles collided head-on. There was an additional passenger in each vehicle at the time of the crash. All four individuals were transported by Life Ambulance to area hospitals.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Portage Department of Public Safety at 329-4567 or Silent Observer at 343-2100, www.kalamazoosilentobserver.com.
