Case No. 14-8755

On May 25, 2014, at approximately 12:33 p.m., Portage Police and Fire units were dispatched to a two-car injury accident at the intersection of Sprinkle Road and Nash Street. During the investigation, it appeared that a Jeep Cherokee, driven by a 71-year-old Kalamazoo woman, was traveling westbound toward Nash Street when it was struck by a Chevrolet Cruze, occupied by a male and female in their late teens, which was traveling southbound on Sprinkle Road.

All three of the subjects involved were transported to Bronson Hospital for non-life-threatening injuries. The preliminary investigation indicates that neither speed nor alcohol were factors in the crash.
